

True or False?

- Generally a parent will be required to consent for their minor child's medical treatment?
- A therapist cannot withhold information about a child's drug use from his or her parent or guardian?
- Mental health treatment can be given to a minor without the consent of a parent or guardian?
- Under NY General Obligations Law, the wages of a minor can be ordered payable to the minor's guardian at the direction of the guardian?
- A young person can access medical insurance benefits without the involvement of parent or guardian?
- Emancipated minors can work without a parent or guardian's permission?
- A minor who has a child can be forced to surrender custody and control of the child to her parent or other person legally responsible for the minor?
- If a parent or guardian does not consent to medical treatment for their minor child, the adult cannot be required to pay for it?
- A minor who commits a felony in New York will be tried as a juvenile delinquent?
- A 17 year old in New York who is found guilty of a crime in New York will automatically get youthful offender status?
- A parent or guardian who fails to assure their child attends school regularly can be charged with child neglect?
- A child who is repeatedly truant can be adjudicated a PINS?
- A child can be removed from the care of a parent for failing to provide the child adequate food, clothing and shelter?
- In New York, parents are required to support their children until the age of 21?