NEW McKinney-Vento Initiative

Goals:

- ❖ Provide technical assistance to BOCES to support students and families from component districts experiencing temporary housing.
- ❖ Offer opportunities to connect with key BOCES staff to support the sharing of ideas and building knowledge around students in transitional housing.

Statewide BOCES Meetings

Audience: BOCES District Superintendents, McKinney-Vento liaisons, related staff

Structure: Large group meetings, twice a school year

Purpose:

- Share McKinney-Vento resources
- Provide information on Regional trainings
- Facilitate connections among BOCES McKinney-Vento liaisons

Targeted Regional BOCES Meetings

Audience: BOCES McKinney-Vento liaisons or related staff and McKinney-Vento liaisons from component LEAs

Structure: Regional meetings, three (3) times in a school year. Breakout room discussions facilitated by BOCES liaison.

Purpose:

- Share McKinney-Vento resources.
- Facilitate connections among McKinney-Vento liaisons in each region.
- Provide opportunities for discussions focused on identification, barriers to enrollment, and the unique needs of students in temporary housing in that region.

Liaison Responsibilities

The McKinney-Vento Act includes a "job description" for the local liaison in the form of a list of duties. According to the Act [42 U.S.C. § 11432(g) (6)(A)], local liaisons must ensure:

Identification:
Children and youth experiencing homelessness are identified by school personnel through outreach and coordination activities with other entities and agencies.

Enrollment:
Children and youth experiencing homelessness are enrolled in, and have a full and equal opportunity to succeed in, schools within the district.

Referrals for Early Childhood:
Children, youth, and families experiencing homelessness have access to and receive educational services for which they are eligible, including Early Head Start and Head Start programs, early intervention services under Part C of the Individual with Disabilities Education Act, and other preschool programs administered by the school district.

Referrals for Health, Housing and Other Services:
Children, youth, and families experiencing homelessness receive referrals to health care, dental, mental health, substance abuse, housing, and other appropriate services.

Parent Involvement:
Parents or guardians of students experiencing homelessness are informed of the educational and related opportunities available to their children, and are provided with meaningful opportunities to participate in the education of their children.
